LYNS TO BEAT CINCINNATI.

As the Philadelphias managed to pull out a victory from St. Louis yesterday, the Brooklyns. though they defeated the Cincinnatis in a model game, failed to further reduce the Quakers' lead. The Champions have reached the soo mark, however, and are 34 points behind the Philadelphias. The New Yorks whitewashed the Chicagos just as they treated the St. Louis team on Monday, and incidentally they crawled out of last place because of Cincinnatis downfull The Bostons outplayed the Pittsburgs and passed the Chicagos. The Hub players are only points behind St. Louis and are within striking distance of third place. There is a difference of but 88 points between fourth and last place, which is a comparatively small margin. The foes at Washington Park yesterday, and had it not been for Keeler's fine batting the Champions not been for acceer's time outring the timepoins would have gone under. The Reds, who, by the way, wore sombre blue uniforms, presented their young pitcher, Scott, who, with great speed and beautiful control, did well enough to win ordinarily. But Keeler was the man to solve his curves, and he did it to the Queen's taste, with a clean home run and a three-bagger. Kitson also pitched a clean, fast game for the Eitson also pitched a clean, fast game for the Brooklyns. He and Scott were so effective that Kitson also pitched a clean, fast same for the Brooklyns. He and Scott were so effective that not a base hit was made by either team in the first four innings, and only one man, McBride, reached first base.

BROOKLYN, 5: CINCINNATI, 4. The Brooklyns found the Cincinnatis worth

The Cincinnatis, however, broke the ice in the fifth inning, when Crawford got around on a double, an out and a single by Steinfeldt. The Brooklyns, thoursh, quickly evened this up in their half, when Sheckard singled, stole second cleanly, sprinted to third on Danlen's out and scored by great running after Barrett had caught Cross's short fly.

After Crawford had made a beautiful catch of McGuire's long drive in the sixth for the first out, Kitson doubled to right centre. Jones's out put him on third, and then Keeler hit the ball. It sailed into centre field like a bullet and bounded ten feet over Barrett's head. As the ball rolled to the centre field pickets, Keeler chused Kitson around the bases and scored an easy home run. That put the Champions two runs ahead, and when Jennings closed the bridge with a fly to Crawford, there was an ovalent field.

McBridge made another run for the Cincinnatic field. McBride made another run for the Cincin-ine throw. The next two men went out on flies but Wood's hard single sent McBride home. A fumble by Corcoran, a steal, a wild pitch and Kitson's safe hit enabled Daly to make Brooklyn's fourth run in the eighth, which swelled the total to 4 against 2.

So when the ninth opened the cranks began to leave. Beckley sent a long fly to Jones and was out. McBride got four balls and Crawford's out landed him on second. Then, to the surprise of the rooters, Irwin got in a tremendous drive between Sheckard and Jones which was good for a home run and sent McBride in ahead, tying the score. The cranks who had left their seats hurried back and when Steinfeldt's fly was gathered in by Keeler near the fence the rooting began all over again.

Keeler was due at the plate in the last half.

NEW YORK, 4: CHICAGO, 0.

NEW YORK, 4: CHICAGO, 0.

Aided by a little luck the New Yorks succeeded in moving out of last place in the pennant race yesterday afternoon. They shut out the Chicagos, the feat being the second successive performance of the kind by the locals. The luck consisted in having every one of their hits count in the run-getting. They only made six safe swats in all, while the Chicago pummelled the ball for eight singles and a two-bagger, but some ill-advised base-running prevented the Windy City athletes from sending a man across the plate. It must be recorded, however, that Carrick was very steady at critical stages of the game. In the second inning the Chicagos had men on first and second with only one out, but the next two batsmen died on easy infield grounders. In the fifth, with one out and two men on bases, Callahan foolishly tried to steal ien on bases, Callahan foolishly tried to steal iird. Then, after a base on balls to Childs, iyan struck out. In the eighth the visitors had ien on first and second with none out, but a ouble play by Doyle and Davis robbed them a chance to score, although it looked as lough the second man on the double was safe y many feet.

though the second man on the double was safe by many feet.

The Chicages did a lot of kicking. When Green went out on a grounder to Doyle in the second inning he made a violent protest to Umpire Swartwood, and in the eighth the same player was loud in his denunciation of the official for declaring Ganzel out on the double play. Callahan was continually kicking on balls and strikes, and in the sixth inning he made a rush at the umpire after he had made a wild throw of Bowerman's grounder, allowing the runner to reach first. What grounds he had for his protest no one could imagine, for it looked like an error pure and simple. However, he was joined by Childs, and then Ryan came in from centre field to register his kick. Swartwood stood the talk for a time and then waved the trio away. The score:

YALE ROWS THE COURSE AGAIN. Time Reported to Be Better Than That of Monday's Trial.

GALES FERRY, June 12 .- This morning was an ideal one for testing the speed of the Yale crews and Dr. Gailaudet could not withstand the temptation to give the 'Varsity eight another tempration to give the 'Varsity eight another trial over the four-mile course. The freshmen received ten seconds' start and gave the 'Varsity eight a good brush for a mile. Then they dropped out and the 'Varsity shell continued down the course. The time made over the four miles this morning is reported to have been even better than that made last night—22 minutes 30 seconds.

This evening pair oar work preceded the regular practice in the boat a d the light work of the eight was done above the quarters. The make-up of the crew to-day, which showed several changes, was: Bow, Williams; 2, Wickes; 3, Mitchell; 4, Kunzig; 5, Cross; 6, Allen; 7, Blagden; stroke, Cameron.

The freshman crew took an hour's practice this morning. Strong is again rowing at his old position. No. 2, Sargent being taken out and placed on the substitute list. C xawain Barnes arrived from New Haven this morning and replaced Lounsbury in the freshman boat. The oarsmen are not improving as rapidly as the coaches would like to have them.

The freshman four broke the stern of their shell after practice last night and Boatriggers Kennedy and Bishop have spent the greater part of the day hunting for the pieces and endeavoring to patch the craft.

THE UNCAS COLT BEATS SOME SMART YOUNGSTERS AT GRAVESEND. Unusual Sequence of Successful Favorites

-Jockey Maher Captures Three Races out of Four Mounts-Buela Scores for W. C. Whitney Over Hurdles in Record Time. Favorites held a long deferred carnival at Gravesend yesterday and swept the board, to the utter consternation of the bookmakers. Jockey Maher also was a prominent factor in the cyclone which shook up the ring. He had four mounts, and after failing to bring Screech into the money he put three winners across the plate in succession. Weather and track conditions were alike inviting to trainers, owners and racegoers and the attendance exceeded the 5,000 mark. Small fields were the exception and

The honor of leading off the programme was conceded to the hurdle racers who have been furnishing such rare sport that jumping events are gradually taking a place among the most popular attractions. Seven of the thirteen named for the Kensington Handicap declined the issue, leaving the handy field of half a dozen in which J. W. Colt was doubly represented by Lackland and Mr. Stoffel. Buela carried the light blue jacket and brown cap of W. C. Whitney and enough money to make her a strong favorite at 2 to 1. All the others were in demand except Dr. Eichberg who went to the post friendless at 10 to 1. He startled the plungers by going out in the first furlong and setting a tremendous pace. Lackland chased him for while, but then gave way to the topweight, Gov. Griggs Hogan kept within hail with Bueia until the turn for home where he let her down for keeps and she galloped away from the bunch. The Bramble mare won by three lengths from Dr Eichherg, who hung ongamely and beat Gov Griggs a head. The time hung out clipsed the track record of 31545 made by Gov Griggs, with 167 pounds up, on June i. Thirteen two-year-olds turned out for the fillies' race of five furious, second on the card. Sporting Duchess cut up shines in her preliminary gallop and fired her boy. She want to the post at 200 to 1 and ended suspense By bolting at the turn. John Daly's Glennelle was heavily played to beat the lot, and she did it in style. McCue got her away well and brought her home two lengths in front of the second choice. Tower of Candles, who beat the well-played Morris filly Janier, a length.

W. M. Barrick's useful breadwinner, James, was backed to odds on in the handleap. Sarmatian and Lindemere alternated as pa emakers, but James came through in the last furlong and won out by a head. Sarmatian took the place by four lengths from Orontas, who beat took Roosevelt a neck. This payed the way for the Hanover Stakes and the scratching of Tonleum was accepted as a tip that Fake held the other eight two-year-olds safe. The Morris of closed favorite at 2 to 1, but a lot of money was invested on Lief Prince. Fake took the track at once and won easily by a length, with Lief Prince t ree parts of a length in tront of Cari Kahler. down for keeps and she galloped away from the

Dan Rice ruled favorite over Precursor, Merry Prince and three of ers in the selling race at one mile and a sixteenth. The circus horse drew the rail and nursed the advantage throughout, winning easily by a length from Post Haste, who beat Precursor two lengths. Several "good things" were exploited in the last race of the day, but Kamara closed a strong favorite and won, ridden out, by a length and a haif. May Hemistead showed some of her old-time speed and beat Cleora a length for the place. Andrisa was played down from Stol to 6 to 1, but failed by a neck to finish in the money. Summary:

The Coney Island Jocky Club has been licensed by the State Racing Commission to conduct race meetings from June 16 to July 4 and from August 25 to September 8, Inclusive. The racing at Gravesend promises to wind up in the proverbial "blaze of glory." To-day's features are the Tremont and Falcon Stakes, and to-morrow's eard bristles with attractions, including the Brooklyn Derby.

PHILADELPHIA, June 12.—The Philadelphia Country Club first team had an easy time today in defeating the Freebooters, of the same club, at the Country Club field in the opening same of the series for cups offered by the club. There are also individual cups to be won outright. The first team conceded five goals to the Freebooters, but, even with that lead, they were unable to hold their own. The score stood at 16 to 8 when time was up.

WOMEN'S MATCH PLAY GOLF.

MISS UNDERHILL AND MISS HOYT IN WINNING PORM.

Miss Fargo Holds Her Own in Grand Style

-Much Expected From Miss Wetmore and Miss Hecker's Battle To-day-Mrs. Morgan, Miss Haribut and Miss Chauncer Qualify. Both new and familiar faces had their place in the list of winners yesterday at the Morris County Golf Club, where the Women's Metropolitan Goif Association is this week in progress. The first rounds were decided at match play in both the championship and the consolation event. This morning, when the second round for the championship begins, Miss Fargo plays Miss Hoyt, Miss Wetmore plays Miss Hecker, Mas Underhill plays Mrs. W. Fellowes Morgan and Miss Huribut plays Miss Madeline Chauncey. The consolation cup survivors are paired in this order: Mrs. A. DeWitt Cochrane and Miss Brown, Miss Charles and Miss Bryce, Miss Robinson and Mrs. Shippen, Mrs. Sandford and Miss Swords.

The sensation of the tournament has been the prominence of Miss Fargo, who is competing in an open event for the first time. She has a very well rounded game and Miss Hoyt will not have a walkover to-day. Miss Fargo's opponent was Miss Marian Oliver, who, as usual, was driving a long ball, but who was not at her best on the putting greens. Their cards were Miss Fargo 6 5 4 6 6 5 6 4 5-48 Miss Oliver 6 4 5 6 5 6 6 5 6-40 Miss Fargo 4 8 5 6 5 4 6 6 8-53-101 Miss Oliver 6 6 6 7 5 5 4 6 6-51-100 *Bye holes.

In this and several of the matches the score were better than the old record of 103, which indicates how good the playing was. Mise Fargo won by 2 up and 1 to play. The next pair out were Miss Hoyt and Mrs. Berg, who had a very spirited match. Miss Hoyt was getting both distance and direction through the fair green, but Mrs. Berg held her own until the

Miss floyt had the lead at the turn and kept it

Miss Maud Wetmore and Miss Kip, the two best players of the Morris County Club, had a splendid match in which the former re-versed the decision in the club's recent women's tournament, when Miss Kip won. Miss Wet-more this time had the honors by 1 up. The strokes:

Miss Wetmore 5 4 4 7 5 6 4 5 7-47 Miss Ktp 6 3 5 6 4 6 5 7 7-49 Miss Wetmore 5 7 6 7 7 6 5 6 6-65-102 Miss Ktp 4 7 8 5 6 5 7 6-56-103 The last pair out in the first half of the draw were Miss Genevieve Hecker and Miss Shear-son. The former is George Strath's favorite pupil at Wee Burn and she has a very impressive pupil at Wee Burn and she has a very impressive style. She has a perfect swing getting all her strongth into the well-carried-out follow through, and on the short game Miss Hecker is also very good. She has not had Miss Wetmore's experience as a match player, yet Miss Hecker should come very close to winning today. The card was rather on the high side, however, for Miss Hecker was 3 up on Miss Shearson at the turn and thereafter she took matters easy. Miss Hecker's score was:

Taking up the four matches of the second eight, the hottest was between Miss M. Chauncey and Miss Willis, the latter only being beaten 1 up. Miss Chauncey made the round in 107, in spite of a 10 on the 545-yard hole. The card: MissM.Chauncey.5 4 5 7 6 7 5 6 7-52 Miss Willis 5 4 6 8 5 6 6 5 10-55 Miss Willis 7 10 4 5 6 6 6-55-107 Miss Willis 8 8 5 5 5 7 6-54-109

Miss Maxwell was "off" on her long game in her match with Miss Underhill and she had the worst of it from the start. Miss Underhill went out in 53 to Miss Maxwell's 57, and she was then out in 53 to Miss were played at the same rate of strokes, for Miss Underhill did not seem to get as much distance as usual through the fair green. The card was:

Miss Underhill ... 4 5 5 6 7 5 7 7 7—53 Miss Maxwell ... 8 6 6 8 6 5 4 7 7—57 Miss Underhill . 8 6 7 9 6 5 5 7 —43—96 Miss Maxwell ... 5 7 8 6 4 5 6 —43—100 "Bye holes not played. Mrs W. Fellowes Morgan and Miss Huribert were both easy winners, a though Mrs. Morgan was not as brilliant as usual on the shortgame. She went out in 55 and was then 6 up, while Miss Hurlbert went out in 57 and was 2 up. The

The scoring was nearly as good in the consolation set, for Mrs. Coenrane, Miss Bryce, Miss Robinson and Mrs. Shippen were all close to 100. Miss Brown, who made her first aprearance at Morris Country, rlayed very well and in good form. Miss Charles and Miss de Bary had the longest match of the day, the former only winning on an extra hole. The consolation cup summary:

CRACKS AT THE TARGETS.

Best Shooters in the Country Open the Tourney at Interstate Park. The first annual Grand American Handicap Target Tournament of the Interstate Association began yesterday at Interstate Park. Queens, L. I., with a series of sweepstakes that attracted the best shooters at inanimate targets in the country. J. S. Fanning, the Pacific coast crack, who a few days ago broke 231 targets in succession, took his place at the traps, but at the close of the day's shooting his record of breaks was one less than that of Rollo Heikes of Dayton, who secured the honors for best average with 167 out of a possible 175.

In the sweepstakes, manufacturers' agents and paid representatives were debarred from the prize money and allowed to shoot for tarthe prize money and allowed to shoot for targets only. This had the effect of increasing the proportion of amateurs, and the majority of competitors in the ten events was made up of the men who handle the gun for sport's sake.
Twenty dollars was added by the association to the sweepstakes money in each event and the total divided on the Rose system. Five of the 'sweeps were at twenty targets and five at fifteen, and the good all-round quality of the competitors was demonstrated by the fact that in every one of the ten events the first money was divided by several men who broke all the targets.

money was divided by several men who broke all the targets.

At 10 o clock seventy-two men divided into fourteen squads of five and one of two opened the shooting at four trars. Late entries brought the number of competitors up to eighty, and when the day's sport ended nearly 15,000 targets had been sprung.

The Grand American Handicap, open to all at 100 targets for which a sterling silver trophy will be presented in addition to $200 added money, will begin to-morrow, and entries $10 each must be made before 6 P. M. to-day. A new system of handicapping will be tried and instead of receiving allowances in targets the competitors will shoot at distances ranging from fourteen to twenty-five yards.

The events scheduled for to-day include a preliminary handicap at 100 targets open to all and five sweepstakes from which paid agents and representatives are barred.
